The Mack Addition to Ypsilanti, N.Dak., is located on the N.E. 1/4 of Section 12, Township 136, R. 65, Stutsman Co., N.Dak., as fully described and set forth in the adjoining plan. It is more accurately located as follows: Beginning at the western 1/4 Stake, thence in a northerly direction along the Section Line, One thousand One hundred Sixty-five and nine tenths feet (1,659'), thence turning an angle of ninety degrees (90°) in a westerly direction Three hundred Eight and nine tenths (308.9') thence turning an angle of Ninety degrees and Fifty minutes (90°50') in a southerly direction One thousand One hundred Sixty-six feet (1,666') to the 1/4 line, thence turning an angle of Eighty-nine degrees and seven minutes (89°7') in an easterly direction along the 1/4 line, Two hundred Ninety-one feet (291') to the place of beginning.

For monuments the western 1/4 Stake and the north-eastern corner Stake were used. The old stakes were found and iron stakes driven down directly thru the center of them.

I hereby certify that The Mack Addition was platted by me in the month of August 1908, and is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.
